

Smart City in Comparative Perspective: Germany and Brazil

Do.	27. June 2019	IfPol: Scharnhorst 100 GRASP room, 101
14:00	Prof. Norbert Kersting (Muenster University, WWU - IfPol): Introduction	Smart cities and participation: future prospects
14:45	Prof. Jose Carlos Vaz (Universidade Sao Paulo):	Data-based government and the governance of public policies: risks and opportunities for democracy
15:30	Coffee break
16:00	Prof. Soraya Vargas Cortes (Universidad Federal Rio Grande do Sur, UFRGS):	Smart cities: civic participation and civil rights
16:45	Nicole Najemnik (Fachhochschule für öffentliche Verwaltung, FHöV NRW)	Digital divides and political participation in smart cities
17:30	Postershow Smart cities (Master students)	Scharnhorststr. 100: Foyer 2. Floor
Fr.	28. June 2019	Scharnhorststr. 103: Library
9.30	Prof. Dr. Katrin Möltgen-Sicking (FHöV NRW)	Local governance and digitalization
10:15	Prof. Marcelo Kunrath Silva (UFRGS)	Internet and political participation
11:00	Coffee break
11:30	Ricardo Matheus (TU Delft)	Open Government Data in local Governments of Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay
12:15	Mara Mendes (WWU)	E-procurement and local government
13:00	Lunch break
14:30	Andrew Matsiko (WWU)	Digitalization and local finance
15:00	Brenda Espindula (UFRGS)	E-participation and mobilization
15:45	Norbert Kersting: Conclusions	